

Reg Street—After P.M.S.S. Reg will divide his time between S.F.U., work, and a number of diversions including golf, racquet sports, and travel.

Laurel Stroppa—"L-hack" likes a laugh a minute and loves a concert (especially one she actually sees). Pet peeve: teachers who lecture when she's interrupting.

Elaine Suderman—Elaine's hobbies include skiing, music and going out. Her future plans are to go to Saskatchewan for one year and then find a secretarial job.

John Summers—John's future plans include a haircut. His pastimes are filled with soccer, acting, and ballet. He would also like to thank his orthodontist for his smile.

Wayne Sutherland—Wayne has enjoyed non-academic subjects, such as Auto 12 at Port Moody. Pet peeve: Ballard.

Jill Swanston—Jill plans on going to university to discover if it's possible to use Algebra 12 in real life. Perhaps she will try to get a grasp on reality.

Jason Taylor

Rob Thibealt—After finishing high school Rob would like to spend his time on the ski slopes. Rob feels the three-year plan was enough in P.M.S.S.

Lisa Thiessen—Lisa's future plans are to live in Europe, preferably Greece, and to own a fixed up Volkswagon. Best memories: the weekend in Penticton.

Graham Thomas—Graham's ambition is to be able to wail on the bass like Geddy Lee. Best memories include seeing his reflection in Mr. Ballard's head.

Cathy Townsend—After graduation Cathy plans to go to B.C.I.T. to become a successful business woman in hotel management. Her hobbies are skiing, varnats, and leather.

Shelly Towpich—Shelly has enjoyed attending P.M.S.S., her best memories: grade 11. Shelly also enjoyed managing the football team in grade 12. On weekends Shelly likes to go out with friends.
