

Les Farkas—Les plans to be a commercial airline pilot, but he is still having troubles taking off. His interests are fooseball, skiing, and badminton.

Mark Ferguson—Mark hopes to attend P.V.I. after graduation to study geology. His interests are girls, rugby, soccer and Monday Night Football at Ben's place.

Pete Ferriman—Pete, a nature lover, plans after graduation to work, travel, ski, and do what ever comes to mind. Pet Peeve: life after death.

Debbie Forcier—Debbie's future plans are to graduate in June and travel to Europe for a year, after which she may begin university. Fondest memories: Grade 11.

Dave Francescutti—Dave's advice to grade 11's: avoid socials 11 with Mr. Ash. Pet peeve: grade 12. His favorite classes were ping pong ball and Painting 12.

Abby Francis—When Abby isn't acting, writing, editing, scorekeeping, playing soccer and setting up for student government, she occasionally does homework.

Bev Friend—Bev enjoys weekends and spending time with her boyfriend. She plans to continue her education after graduation. Pet peeve: permed hair.

Tracy Frolick—Tracey hopes to achieve a university degree and be married by the time she is twenty-five. Her worst memory of P.M.S.S.: homework.

Mike Fromme

Judi Fung—Judi is looking forward to graduation. Future plans include travelling with friends and attending B.C.I.T. with any left-over money.

Kris Gardner—Kris plans to become rich and famous in under six months, legally. Pet peeve: being nicknamed "Christopher" by nearsighted guy named Steve.

Ann-Marie Goshier—Ann-Marie enjoys trying to windsurf and late night jaunts with the six-pack-party-pack. Future plans include avenging spies in downtown Vancouver.

